

President's Letter

Happy New Year!

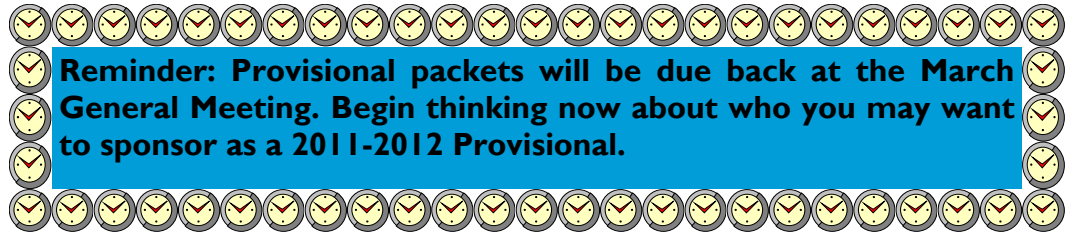

First, I would like to thank JJ. Walker and Holly Amerman for leading us in a wonderful poinsettia sale. We sold over $47,000 in plants. Thank you all for supporting this wonderful fundraiser that supports Chieftains Museum, our school supply project, and other local projects!

It is time for Follies again! This year marks our 35th Follies show. We hope you will mark your calendars for February 4-5, 2011, and plan to attend the Patron's Party and show. This year you can buy tickets online or you can use the enclosed card that was sent with your invitation. I look forward to seeing you there!

Many of you have shared photos and programs from past Follies. Thank you very much! If anyone else would like to share Follies memories, you can contact an active member or email us at jslrome@gmail.com.

As we begin a new year together, I just want to thank you all for your service to our community. You amaze me with your grace and willingness to help so many.

Cheers! Stephanie

Reminder: Provisional packets will be due back at the March General Meeting. Begin thinking now about who you may want to sponsor as a 2011-2012 Provisional.

Provisional Spotlight

Megan Murphy Hotchkiss

A relative newcomer, Megan has been a Roman for a couple of years and enjoys eating at Rusan's. She has two brothers and considers the Dominican Republic the most interesting place she has traveled.

Kimberly Morris Rott

Kim is the youngest of four. Friends describe her as loyal, hardworking and honest, so we are certainly glad to have her as part of JSL! A beach-lover, Kim loves to visit Cumberland Island and the British Virgin Islands. You can usually find her at Bella Roma, Great Harvest or Harvest Moon—her favorite spots.

Keri Smith

Keri has lived in Rome for over eight years. She has one brother and one sister and loves her job here. She has visited over 15 states and has spent time in Belize.

Julie Bishop

A native Roman, Julie is described as loyal and loves teaching. She has traveled both domestically and internationally and loves Las Vegas. Julie enjoys eating at Los Portales.
